

ELEVISTA INTERACTIVE LEARNING

AUGUST 19, 2019 | INSURANCE & HEALTH LAW

For more than a decade, BN's unique training arm, Elevista Interactive Learning, has elevated the knowledge of thousands of insurance, broking and risk management professionals through in-house training, public workshops and Web-Bytes webinars. Elevista is at the forefront of emerging risks, with a first-to-market approach to sharing our expertise on new insurance products, legal developments and risks.

We explore complex insurance-related issues in a way that ensures you get a proper understanding of the internal mechanics of the topic. Even more importantly, every session is interactive, so you will benefit not just from our insights but from everyone's experiences. Plus, you can earn your professional development points!

Our team of facilitators, who are all experienced insurance lawyers with a passion and talent for teaching, will make your learning process informative, practical and enjoyable.
