Aleena is a solicitor in our Family Law team and is based in our Brisbane office.

"I was drawn to Barry Nilsson because of the outstanding reputation it holds and the culture it promotes. It is a pragmatic firm which places an emphasis on achieving the best possible results for clients."

Aleena is involved in all aspects of family law including:

- Divorce
- Property settlements
- Parenting
- Financial matters
- Child support
- Domestic violence.

"As a family lawyer, my position enables me to assist people who are going through difficult situations, and to enable them to move on from what has been an emotional and frustrating phase of their lives. It is a gratifying experience when I have assisted a client to achieve a good outcome in all the circumstances of their particular case, using a compassionate and understanding approach."

Aleena has come from a varied practice encompassing a broad range of areas of law including family, criminal, estate planning and litigation, and general drafting of wills, power of attorney documents, and guardianship documents. Aleena is well equipped to provide a holistic approach to her clients involved in complex family matters involving estate planning, or need criminal law advice for matters involving protection orders.

Aleena has a Bachelor of Laws, Bachelor of Psychological Science and a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice. She is a member of the Family Law Section of the Law Council of Australia and the Law Society of Queensland.
