Andrea is an Associate in our Insurance and Health team based in our Adelaide office.

Whilst working full-time in the legal industry, Andrea completed a Bachelor of Laws from the University of New England and a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice from the Australian National University in 2013.

Andrea specialises in CTP Insurance and has a special interest in out of time matters, dependency claims, mental harm claims as well as cost claims. Andrea has worked in the whole gamut of the CTP industry for over 17 years. She also has experience with medical negligence matters and inquests.

Andrea has been involved in complex Supreme Court matters, District Court Trials and successful liability and out of time Trials in the lower courts.

Of significance is Andrea's exceptional skill at client relationships, cementing an industry-wide reputation for being hardworking, proactive, approachable and an accomplished negotiator.

"I was very excited to join the Barry.Nilsson. team due to the firm's excellent reputation in the CTP industry. Working for such a highly regarded firm provides enormous opportunity to diversify and develop as a legal practitioner and build long-lasting relationships within the insurance industry".
