Daniel McCormack is a special counsel in our Insurance & Health team. He joined Barry.Nilsson.'s Brisbane office as an article clerk in 2003 and was admitted to practice in 2005.

Daniel's areas of expertise are:

- Public liability
- Property
- Professional indemnity

His experience includes:

- managing personal injury and property damage claims for a number of national insurers and reinsurers in London
- managing public liability and professional indemnity claims for local authorities in Queensland
- managing catastrophic injury and dependency claims arising from road and workplace accidents
- advising on accident and health (personal accident) policies and claims
- advising insurers in relation to first party claims, including on issues such as fraud, deliberate acts, non-disclosure and non-cooperation by the insured and the insurer's adherence to underwriting guidelines

'I have a particular interest in catastrophic injury and dependency claims due to the complex nature of the assessment of quantum, which includes reconciling the evidence of multiple medical experts and forensic reports.'

In addition to his insurer client base, Daniel is a preferred solicitor for a range of insured clients, including:

- various local authorities
- the largest plantation company in Queensland
- a leading mid-tier civil engineering/construction company

'I enjoy the variety of work and clients that my role at Barry.Nilsson. offers me. I also like working with a team that's highly motivated but at the same time appreciates a work/life balance.'

Daniel has a Bachelor of Laws (Hons) and a Bachelor of Business (Accounting). He is a member of AILA and the Queensland Law Society.
