Elizabeth is a senior associate in our Family Law team and is based in the Sydney office.

Elizabeth has specialised in family law since her admission in 2008. In 2011, she was admitted as a Barrister in Queensland, and continued to practice exclusively in family law. Elizabeth has appeared in the Federal Circuit Court and Family Court of Australia in Brisbane, Sydney, Melbourne, Hobart and Rockhampton.

Elizabeth is experienced in managing a diverse range of family law matters, including complex property divisions for both matrimonial and de facto relationships. Her expertise covers a broad range of parenting disputes including same-sex parenting matters such as donor agreements and surrogacy.

She has commercial experience within family law including representing trustees in bankruptcy and financial institutions within family law disputes. Her experience in property law, banking roles and extensive experience in litigation provide a strong foundation for managing the resolution of unique family law matters.

"I ensure my clients are provided with clear advice about litigation prospects, and the potential for collaborative outcomes such as mediation and opportunities to negotiate settlements."
