Mitchell King is an Associate in our Insurance & Health team and is based in the Sydney office.

Mitchell has extensive experience in insurance law and litigation, and specialises in:

- General liability
- Property damage / construction
- Maritime liability
- Claims Management, and
- Insurance contract advice.

Mitchell's clients include domestic and global insurers, and he has represented a range of insureds from a variety of industries in state and federal courts.

Prior to joining BN, Mitchell worked as the claims manager for a top ASX listed company, advising clients on management of crisis events involving multiple claimants and managing an extensive property recovery practice.

Mitchell has a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Commerce (Finance). He is a member of a number of insurance-related professional organisations, including Australian Insurance Law Association (AILA), Young Insurance Professionals (YIPs) and the NSW Claims Discussion Group (CDG).
