Natalie is a solicitor in our Insurance and Health team and is based in the Brisbane office.

"The breath and depth of expertise of BN's staff is a drawcard. Everyone is happy to help in any way they can, and I'm eager to learn from the many experienced insurance specialists in the office."

Representing domestic and global insurers and their insureds, Natalie specialises in

- Public liability
- Personal injury
- Property damage

"I enjoy the complexities of the interactions between statute, common law and the unique facts of every matter. Being able to delve deep into the specific circumstances of each case and understand how everything fits together is very rewarding."

Prior to joining BN, Natalie gained experience in the areas of life and superannuation, industrial relations and employment law.

Natalie holds a Bachelor of Laws (Hons), Bachelor of Arts (International Relations and Criminology) and Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice. She is an Executive Committee Member of Queensland Young Lawyers and a member of Women in Law, Young Insurance Professionals (YIPs) and Queensland Law Society. In addition, Natalie is a general member of the Australian Lawyers for Human Rights and member of the LGBTIQ subcommittee. She also regularly volunteers at Caxton Legal.
