'I enjoy acting as a mentor to the graduate solicitors in our group and helping them assimilate into their new working environment. I work in a great team and there's always someone to discuss matters or bounce around ideas with'

Ngaire's practice focuses on public liability claims. Her expertise includes:

- Personal injury
- Third party property damage

Ngaire also has experience in:

- First party property
- Heavy motor claims
- Domestic recovery claims

'I love the variety of work that my practice provides me with. No two matters are ever the same!'

Ngaire has a broad client base, including insurers; local Government authorities; owners and occupiers of residential and commercial premises; small business owners; and principal contractors.

'I work with great clients. They are very approachable and always provide clear instructions, in a timely manner. They are willing to take a step back and see the big picture on a matter and adopt a commercial approach when necessary.'

Ngaire has a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Arts, as well as a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice.
