Rachael is a Senior Associate in our Family Law team and is based in the Melbourne office.

“Family law is a complex area of law. At Barry.Nilsson. I enjoy working with a team of experienced lawyers who are committed to providing clear and considered advice and to achieving the best possible outcome for our clients.”

Rachael has practiced predominately in family law since 2011 and has practiced exclusively in the area since 2015. Rachael has significant experience practicing in all areas of family law including:

- Property Settlements
- Children and parenting matters
- Family Violence matters
- Child support arrangements.

She has a particular interest in complex property matters, involving corporate interests, trusts and valuations and complex parenting matters.

Rachael represents a variety of clients and enjoys working with them to understand and meet their individual needs.

“The issues families face following a separation are often sensitive and wide-ranging. I enjoy working with my clients to understand these issues, provide them with the necessary advice and support them to achieve a resolution.”

Rachael holds a Bachelor of Laws, Bachelor of Business and Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice. She is a member of the Family Law Section of the Law Institute of Victoria, the Law Council of Australia and Victorian Women Lawyers. Rachael also enjoys mentoring law students and currently participates in the Law Institute of Victoria and Victorian Women Lawyers mentoring programs.
