Sarah Carlisle is a senior associate in our Insurance and Health team and is based in the Brisbane office. She is a Queensland Law Society Accredited Specialist (Personal Injuries).

"Barry.Nilsson. promotes a culture of excellence amongst its team. This provides a fantastic environment for collaboration and professional growth."

Sarah has practised exclusively in personal injuries law since her admission in 2011. At BN she focuses on compulsory third party claims, but has extensive experience in the areas of workers' compensation, public and product liability and professional negligence.

Sarah also has experience dealing with both complex liability and contribution issues and catastrophic injury claims.

"I work closely with my clients to navigate the complex processes involved in personal injury claims. I ensure they are provided with appropriate and considered advice when having to make important decisions."

Sarah holds a Bachelor of Laws (Hons). She is a member of the Queensland Law Society.
