Sidney is a solicitor in our Real Estate & Commercial team and is based in the Brisbane office.

He is actively involved across a range of matters including:

- Drafting commercial agreements
- Commercial property acquisitions
- Conveyancing
- Property development
- Commercial and retail leasing
- Franchising.

"I enjoy exploring and understanding our clients' businesses to better meet their needs, and assist them to achieve an effective and efficient outcome."

Sidney has also gained experience in the areas of public and product liability, professional indemnity and personal injuries matters, having previously spent twelve months in our Insurance & Health team.

Prior to commencing at Barry Nilsson., Sidney spent three years working as an undergraduate at an accounting firm where he assisted in a variety of forensic accounting matters, which he credits with strengthening his commercial and financial literacy.

"My undergraduate experience allowed me to put my analytical and problem solving skills to use, affording me valuable insights into the commercial drivers behind a variety of businesses - similar to those of many clients we work with at Barry.Nilsson."

Sidney has a Bachelor of Laws (Hons) and Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting). He is a member of the Queensland Law Society.
