Stephanie joins the team at Barry.Nilsson. after spending 6 years in the UK acting on behalf of UK and international insurers and reinsurers. Prior to that, Stephanie gained experience working in the insurance law team of an international firm in Brisbane.

Stephanie has represented some of the world's largest insurers and reinsurers in a number of significant and high calibre claims. She specialises in the areas of property and liability insurance, and product liability and property claims.

Stephanie is a skilful solicitor with an impressive range of experience across a number of industries. Her confident and sophisticated approach to every matter is a valued addition to the Insurance & Health law team.
